

Civics & Economics – Presidential Photo Essay

Your task is to create a photo essay about the seven roles of the President. Each photo should contain a caption that incorporates:

1. The name of the president depicted in the photo.
2. A description and date of the event in the photo.
3. A connection to and description of the role the president is fulfilling in the photo.
4. No president can be used twice! Get creative!

In 2010, President Barack Obama acted as Head of State by throwing out the first pitch at a game between the Washington Nationals and Philadelphia Phillies. As Head of State, the president is the living symbol of our nation.
