

STATE MORPHOLOGY / STATE SHAPES – “Flip-Books”

Directions: Create a “Flip-Book”, pamphlet, or study aide that has all of the following information listed below.

1. Title the First Flap: State Morphology
  - a. DEFINE
2. Title the Second Flap: Compact States: Efficient
  - a. Define/Shape
  - b. Advantages/Disadvantages
  - c. Provide an Example
  - d. Provide an Illustration
3. Title the Third Flap: Elongated States: Potential Isolation
  - a. Define/Shape
  - b. Advantages/Disadvantages
  - c. Provide an Example
  - d. Provide an Illustration
4. Title the Fourth Flap: Prorupted States: Access or Disruption
  - a. Explain the two reasons why prorupted states may be created.
  - b. Define/Shape
  - c. Advantages/Disadvantages
  - d. Provide an Example
  - e. Provide an Illustration
5. Title the Fifth Flap: Perforated States: Landlocked
  - a. Define/Shape
  - b. Advantages/Disadvantages
  - c. Provide an Example
  - d. Provide an Illustration
6. Title the Sixth Flap: Fragmented States: Problematic
  - a. What are the two kinds of fragmented states?
  - b. Define/Shape
  - c. Provide an Example
  - d. Provide an Illustration
7. Title the Seventh Flap: Other Useful Information
  - a. Microstates: Define/Shape, Advantages/Disadvantages, Provide Example, and Illustrate
  - b. Exclave: Define/Shape, Advantages/Disadvantages, Provide Example, and Illustrate
  - c. Enclave: Define/Shape, Advantages/Disadvantages, Provide Example, and Illustrate