

Visual Perception Project

Essay

You have been asked to paint a picture that includes buildings, fields, a river, and a mountain. Describe how you would use at least five monocular cues to give your painting a sense of depth.

[1 page—20 points]

Activity

On a full piece of paper or larger, draw the above picture (or a similar picture), including the five monocular cues you identified in your essay response. Label each one of these cues.

[full color—20 points]

Visual Perception Project

Essay

You have been asked to paint a picture that includes buildings, fields, a river, and a mountain. Describe how you would use at least five monocular cues to give your painting a sense of depth.

[1 page—20 points]

Activity

On a full piece of paper or larger, draw the above picture (or a similar picture), including the five monocular cues you identified in your essay response. Label each one of these cues.

[full color—20 points]

Visual Perception Project

Essay

You have been asked to paint a picture that includes buildings, fields, a river, and a mountain. Describe how you would use at least five monocular cues to give your painting a sense of depth.

[1 page—20 points]

Activity

On a full piece of paper or larger, draw the above picture (or a similar picture), including the five -

[full color—20 points]