

Congratulations! You've Been Sued!

- Your task is to create a presentation that you can use to assist someone in case if they ever are sued!
- The title for each page is:
  - Title Page: Congratulations! You've Been Sued! (with colored illustration)
  - Page 1: Types of Lawsuits (p. 364 & 349-350)
  - Page 2: Suits In Equity (p. 365)
  - Pages 3 & 4: Going to Trial (p. 365-367)
  - Page 5: Outcomes (p. 367)

Congratulations! You've Been Sued!

- Page 1: Types of Lawsuits (p. 364 & 349-350)
- Requirements:
  - 1 colored illustration
  - What is a lawsuit?
  - Who are the participants in a lawsuit?
  - Describe civil cases involving:
    - Contract disputes
    - Torts or civil wrongs
    - Family disputes

Congratulations! You've Been Sued!

- Page 2: Suits In Equity (p. 365)
- Requirements:
  - 1 colored illustration
  - What is a suit in equity?
  - What is equity?
  - Why are suits in equity typically used?
  - Who decides a suit in equity?
  - What action might a judge take in a suit in equity?

Congratulations! You've Been Sued!

- Pages 3 & 4: Going to Trial (p. 365-367)
- Requirements:
  - Create a flow chart describing the 6 steps in civil trials
  - Be sure to accurately describe:
    - Complaint
    - Summons
    - Pleadings
    - Discovery
    - Pretrial Discussions
    - Mediation
    - Arbitration
    - Settlement
    - “Preponderance of evidence”

Congratulations! You've Been Sued!

- Page 5: Outcomes (p. 367)
- Requirements:
  - 1 colored illustration
  - What is the most common outcome of a lawsuit?
  - What is a remedy? Who does a remedy benefit?
  - Give an example of a remedy
  - What happens if the losing side believes a mistake has been made in their trial?